DR. WHITESIDES WITHDRAWS.
To the Voters: I wish, through your paper, to thank the Republicans of the city for the honor of the nomination for councilman they gave me yesterday, and assure them it is, indeed, appreciated. However, on account of pressing business affairs I shall have to decline as I could not make the active canvass at present I should wish to if I accepted the nomination.

I wish to deny the statement made in some quarters that I am not a Republican. Republican doctrine meets my views entirely, and it is my intention to accept them as long as they do. Very truly,
G. E. WHITESIDES.
October 8, 1901.

QUIET AT THE SHOW GROUNDS.
So far there have been no accidents reported on the Buffalo Bill grounds with the exception of one where an employee mashed his hand. He was taken to the railroad hospital and the member dressed. There was a report that a man at the grounds had broken his leg but after an investigation by a local physician it was presented unfounded.

J. C. Reid.

SCARLET FEVER CASES.
The local physicians report several cases of scarlet fever in the city.
There was some talk of the fever existing where flags were not out but an investigation has proven this incorrect.

A Mayfield man named Coleman was arrested this afternoon for plain drunk and also was a young man named Case.

FULTON NEWS.

An Express Messenger is Mysteriously Missing There.

Negro Escaped From the Fulton "Jug"
Which is Dead
Easy.

Fulton, Ky., Oct. 8.—Ed Gholson, of this city, is missing in St. Louis and foul play is feared. He is an express messenger from St. Louis to this city and did not show up for his run on the Dixie Flyer.

Mr. Doe Gholson, his brother, fears that he was knocked in the head and robbed and his body hidden.

Yesterday was his pay day, and his relatives think probably he was spotted, and as he was en route to take his run was waylaid.

The chief of police and corps of detectives searched St. Louis and failed to find any trace of him.

If no favorable report comes from him Doe Gholson will leave on the midnight train for St. Louis. It is thought by many citizens who know the missing man well, that he just missed his run and will show up all right. He has many friends who hope that nothing serious has happened to him.

Sid Seals, the negro who struck Sam Williams, also colored, in the head with a brickbat at Knight's old restaurant several days ago, broke jail Tuesday night. He was charged with striking with intent to kill.

The trial was set for 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, and when Marshal Robertson went to the jail this morning with the noon's breakfast he found that the wily barraged had made his escape. Seals seemed his release by filing the bars which held the lock.

Seals has left for parts unknown, and is not likely to show up again in Fulton, for some time at least.

Every prisoner who is placed in the city's "jug" can, if he so desires, by the work of his brains and hands, break out easily. It almost means freedom no be placed in it.

A new oil company has been organized at Wickliffe. It is composed of Fulton, Cairo and Wickliffe capitalists, and will be incorporated at once as the Wickliffe Petroleum company.

The capital stock will be $100,000, with 1,500,000 shares at 10 cents per share. The president of the new company is R. M. Chowning, cashier of the First National bank, of Fulton;

P. G. Farrow, of Cairo, vice president; E. T. Washburn, Wickliffe; secretary; Matt Smith, Wickliffe; assistant secretary; W. E. Gholson, Cairo, treasurer. The directors are R. M. Chowning, Matt Smith, E. T.
Washburn, P. G. Farrow, and A. T.
Kirk. They have leased three hundred acres of land from E. T. Washburn, on which there is fine white oil, and fine prospects for oil.

Washburn has bored wells on this land 15 feet deep and has struck oil.
The company, as soon as incorporated, will begin selling stock. From all reports, they have better prospects than all others at Wickliffe.

On next Saturday, October 5, Phil W. and Nettie Peters will be seen at the Kentucky, matinee and night, in their new comedy, "A New Buffalo," which contains nothing but laugh-provoking situations from start to finish. The company which Mr.
Peters has engaged is far above the average supporting company, and as a result there is not a lull in the performance and the audience is not found longing for the reappearance of the stars to relieve the monotony as is often the case in attractions of this kind. The latest songs and medleys are introduced in an unusually clever manner and the new ideas of fun that Mr. Peters has woven in the play will keep the audience constantly amused.
The band and orchestra, which Mr.
Peters carries, is far above the average and they render extremely valuable assistance to the performance, in addition to their excellent rendition of the selections between the acts. The reserved seat sale begins today at noon.

To be able to produce real genuine laughter is quite an accomplishment and there are few persons who have more efficiently acquired this accomplishment than Phil W. and Nettie Peters and the instrument with which they display their accomplishments is one of the funniest plays ever constructed and bears the title of "A New Buffalo," and the date for their appearance at the Kentucky Saturday matinee and night, October 5.

The play is full of funny situations, and is particularly bright in dialogue and the specialties and songs introduced are of strictly a new calibre.
The costumes worn by the ladies are pretty, the music catchy, the stage settings elaborate and the company thoroughly capable and what more could any one ask. The play is constructed in three degrees and the thermometer goes up as the performance progresses and at the fall of the last curtain the audience finds itself soaring in convulsions of laughter when the company's own orchestra brings it back to earth again with the sweet strains of "We Had a Warm Time Tonight." Get in line for the noonday parade.

"Buffalo Willie" is in town playing to a big audience. The town is gallantly with country dukes and dundees.

Business first class at the ways dry docks and enough work in sight to keep both crews busy until the first of January.

The river is getting down to its bed again, but we hope it will not reach prostration before being relieved by the fall rains.

Captain John Throop came down from Smithland yesterday where he has been enjoying a little recreation with his family, also had a good time turkey hunting.

Every business man in Paducah should lend his aid, influence and appropriations to the benefit of the coming waterways convention which meets in Paducah the 23 and 24th of this month.

Captain Keger returned from Madison last night where the Clyde is on the ways. He says the boat would have come off of the ways next Saturday without any trouble, but Clyde boat was hauled out under the Clyde which will necessarily hold her there for a week longer.

Haskell Hughes received a telegram last night from Mr. George Robertson of the Paducah Gun club, who is at Louisville in a contest of target shooting. George says: "We are prepared to meet anybody. Got our medicine.
We are not prepared to state what kind of medicine the boys got, but while taking their's it is safe to say the Louisville boys also received a few doses."

The City of Knoxville will be ready to come off the docks next Saturday and leave for her new home in the Vicksburg and Yazoo City trade. She is now owned by the People's Transportation Co., and they can be safe in saying that they have one of the best boats of her class that ever ran in that trade. Mr. Ed Rollston has made a cartoon sketch of her as she now lays on the docks.

The meeting last night at the city hall relative to the waterways convention that convenes here on the 23d of this month was represented by some of Paducah's most enterprising business men and capitalists. Committees were appointed on the several necessary lines of duties for the entertainment of the distinguished body that will visit our city. Captain Saunders Fowler led off in an enlightened talk of some half hour or more as to the full meaning of the meeting, which was replete with information and was well received by the meeting. Captain Ed Farley, Major Ashcraft and others spoke in well chosen words on river improvements.

Mr. Jim Edwards, the paper hang-Sights and Brooks, met with a very painful accident this morning when he attempted to move a big book-case full of books, when the book-case fell on him, and the case fell over on him. His left hand was caught in the fall, and the glass from one of the doors cut it in several places. There is one gash about three inches long.
